31. Indicate job creation, job retention and wage goals from the Business Subsidy Agreement in the table below.

"Full-time employment" or "FTE" means one job or a combination of jobs that will produce annualized cumulative expected hours of work, not including overtime, equal to 2,080 hours. To qualify, the job must pay Social Security and Worker's Compensation, and employees must be direct employees of the qualified JOBZ business. A FTE job may be seasonal as long as the required number of FTE jobs are created and maintained for each calendar year.

A "retained job" is defined as a job at a specific wage level that existed prior to the signing of the JOBZ business subsidy agreement, and a new job is a job located in the zone that was created subsequent to the agreement date.
